

We think Rincon Heights Neighborhood is one of the best places to live in all of Tucson. We have an eclectic mix of historic architecture, great biking and walking connections, a thriving community garden, a peaceful pocket park, and we're close to so many amenities like the libraries, museums, and sporting events on the UA campus, dining and entertainment at Main Gate Square and Downtown, and unique local shops and restaurants in the Lost Barrio and along Broadway's Sunshine Mile. We literally are in "the middle of everywhere."
